

TENTH CONGRESS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF INFECTION CONTROL

8 - 11 OCTOBER 2009
VILNIUS, LITHUANIA

Symposia:

Core components of Infection Prevention & Control
To screen or not to screen
Making routine Infection Control Practices routine:
6 things that will really make a difference
Hand hygiene
Expanding surveillance: lessons learned from the EU
Communicating the infection control message
Prevention of TB and other respiratory infections
Evidence base for antibiotic policies
Science at the bedside in every country
Wound antisepsis

Please visit the website for:

Online registration
Accommodation details
Scientific programme updates
Scholarship applications
Abstract submission
Social & tour programme information

Congress organizers:

Convention Budapest Ltd.
P.O. Box 11, H-1461 Budapest, Hungary
Phone: + 36 1 299 0184, -85, -86, ext. 123
Fax: + 36 1 299 0187
E-mail: mlukacsi@convention.hu

Keynote lectures:

Getting to Zero and Other Possible Dreams
*Donald Goldmann; Institute for Health Improvement
Cambridge, USA*
Global strategies for antimicrobial resistance prevention and control
*Gerald Dziekan; World Health Organization
Geneva, Switzerland*
Dynamics of MRSA spread in healthcare settings and beyond.
*Hajo Grundmann; EARSS
Bilthoven, The Netherlands*

Workshops & buzz groups:

Near misses in infection control
Basic requirements of infection control education
Designing a ward
Safe needles
A worldwide view on infections in the elderly
MRSA policies in Europe
The five moments of hand hygiene
Wound antisepsis
Multi-resistant Gram negative control
Safe childbirth
Clinical waste management
Prevention of nosocomial fungal infections

Congress website: www.ific2009.com

Registration fee (in Euro):	until 31 July	after 31 July
Standard delegates *	€350	€400
Developing country delegates *	€250	€300
Accompanying persons *	€100	€125

Please refer to website for definition of "Developing Country"

*Includes mid-day lunches for delegates plus gala dinner for both delegates as well as accompanying persons

Abstract & scholarship
deadlines:
31 May 2009